Appendix 1c — Scriptural Foundations for Works of Mercy

“The works of mercy are charitable actions by which we come to the aid of our neighbor in his spiritual and bodily necessities.” (2447) In the spiritual works of mercy, we tend to the soul or spirit of our neighbor. In the corporal works of mercy, we minister to people’s bodily needs.

The seven spiritual works of mercy are:

1. Counsel the doubtful.
2. Instruct the ignorant.
3. Admonish sinners.
4. Comfort the afflicted.
5. Forgive offenses.
6. Bear wrongs patiently.
7. Pray for the living and the dead.

The seven corporal works of mercy are:

1. Feed the hungry.
2. Give drink to the thirsty.
3. Clothe the naked.
4. Shelter the homeless.
5. Visit the sick.
6. Visit the imprisoned.
7. Bury the dead.

The most specific scriptural references for the corporal works of mercy are Matthew 25:31-46 and Tobit 1:17-18 and 4:5-11.

Regarding spiritual works of mercy, “their bases are the teaching of Christ and the practice of the Church since apostolic times.” (John A. Hardon, S.J., Pocket Catholic Dictionary, Image Books by Doubleday, 1985, p. 418.

The intent of this appendix is to provide needed reference material for eighth grade scripture objective #8.

Appendix 1d — Scripture Stories for Catechist Use

This appendix lists more than three dozen scripture stories which catechists will find helpful in teaching the curriculum. This list is only a starting point; it is not presumed to include all of the scripture stories that could be used.

The scripture stories listed here are the same ones suggested on a grade-by-grade basis in Parts 2 and 3 of this curriculum document. By collecting into one appendix all of the stories that are recommended, catechists can easily see in which grades the story is likely to be used. Hopefully, this will enable the catechists to better coordinate their teaching efforts among grades.

“Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ Jesus” (St. Jerome)

Appendix 1e — What Catholics Believe about Creation

In Genesis chapters 1 and 2, we have two stories about God's creation of the world and everything that exists. These accounts are not scientific explanations of God's exact methods of creation but rather are ancient stories to explain our existence and our origin from God.

Many people wonder what it is exactly that they must believe about creation. For example, are we to believe that God created the heavens and the earth in exactly six days (six consecutive 24-hour periods)?

Here are the nine things the Church teaches that we must believe about creation (Genesis 1-11):

1. We are required to believe the creation of all things by God at the beginning of time.
2. We are required to believe the special creation of man.
3. We are required to believe the formation of the first woman from man.
4. We are required to believe the unity of the human race. [Common parents]
5. We are required to believe the original happiness of our first parents.
6. We are required to believe the divine command placed upon man to prove his obedience.
7. We are required to believe his transgression of that command at the instigation of the devil by the serpent.
8. We are required to believe the fall of our first parents from the state of innocence.
9. We are required to believe the promise of a future redeemer.

These are the teachings of the Magisterium (through the Pontifical Biblical Commission) in 1909.

“Did Adam and Eve Really Exist? In a word, ‘Yes.’ Other biblical writers believed it (see Tb 8:6, Acts 17:26, Rom 5:12), and in 1909 the Pontifical Biblical Commission confirmed it, saying that among other things, one of the things that must be believed to be true about the Genesis account of creation is the oneness of the human race. All mankind shares the same first parents. Pope Pius XII’s encyclical Humani Generis states it firmly:

... the faithful cannot embrace that opinion which maintains that either after Adam there existed on this earth true men who did not take their origin through natural generation from him as from the first parent of all, or that Adam represents a certain number of first parents. Now it is no way apparent how such an opinion can be reconciled with that which the sources of revealed truth and the documents of the Teaching Authority of the Church propose with regard to original sin, which proceeds from a sin actually committed by an individual Adam and which, through generation, is passed on to all and is in everyone as his own. (cf. Rom 5:12-19; Council of Trent, Session V, canon 1-4)” (HG 37)

Appendix 2 — Popes

There is no official list of popes, however the Annuario Pontificio, published by the Vatican, contains a list that is generally considered to be the most authoritative. That list is the one given here, and it identifies our current pope, Benedict XVI, as the 265th Bishop of Rome.

Appendix 5 — Stations of the Cross

Praying the Stations of the Cross (or “Way of the Cross”) is a popular devotion among Catholics. Praying the stations may be done at any time of the liturgical year, but it is most fitting during Lent, when we focus on the reality of what Jesus did for us and prepare to celebrate his resurrection at Easter. The stations involve a series of prayers and meditations on the suffering and death of Jesus.

The person praying the Stations of the Cross moves, figuratively, through fourteen scenes that depict events in Jesus’ Passion on the Friday of his crucifixion. These fourteen scenes are generally depicted on the walls of Catholic churches in the form of artwork, which may be paintings or various forms of sculpture or simply fourteen crosses. They are often numbered with Roman numerals. You will also encounter Stations of the Cross out-of-doors at retreat centers and sometimes along the driveway or pathway into a shrine.

The minimum, essential thing to properly practice this devotion (when you “do the Stations”), is to (1) name and contemplate the scene at each station, and (2) pray a brief, heartfelt prayer. It is also common but not critical to sing one verse of Stabat Mater Dolorosa (“At the Cross Her Station Keeping”) while moving from one station to the next.

The traditional fourteen stations are:

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|---|
| 1. Jesus is condemned to death | 8. Jesus speaks to the women of Jerusalem |
| 2. Jesus takes up his Cross | 9. Jesus falls the third time |
| 3. Jesus falls the first time | 10. Jesus is stripped of his garments |
| 4. Jesus meets his Mother | 11. Jesus is nailed to the Cross |
| 5. Simon of Cyrene helps Jesus | 12. Jesus dies on the Cross |
| 6. Veronica wipes the face of Jesus | 13. Jesus is removed from the Cross |
| 7. Jesus falls the second time | 14. Jesus is placed in the tomb |

In current times, a fifteenth station is sometimes added to contemplate Jesus’ resurrection as the source of our salvation.

There are many booklets of different prayers available to assist praying each station, with prayers and themes appropriate for a variety of age groups. The stations can be prayed at home or in church. Most Catholics who pray the Stations of the Cross do so as part of a group during Lent when their parish offers this devotion. A person is also welcome to come into the church when no one is there, walk from station to station as appropriate during the devotion, and pray aloud or silently. The spiritual impact of doing so is outstanding—if the mind and heart truly enter the scene that is depicted.

The Stations is a way to travel a spiritual pilgrimage to the Holy Land, and imagine walking the path along which Jesus actually carried his cross. Tradition asserts that the Blessed Virgin used to visit daily the scenes of Christ’s Passion. St. Jerome speaks of the crowds of pilgrims from all countries that used to visit the holy places in his day, around the year 400.

In the 15th and 16th centuries, the Stations of the Cross began to be depicted in artwork on the walls of churches in Europe for those who could not make a pilgrimage to the Holy Land, and the number of stations for devotion and meditation varied. In some churches more than thirty stations were involved. The particular fourteen stations generally used today have been consistent in Roman Catholic tradition since 1731. Nine of the stations are gospel scenes, and five are from Christian tradition.

Regarding piety and popular devotions, the Catechism of the Catholic Church says: “The religious sense of the Christian people has always found expression in various forms of piety surrounding the Church’s sacramental life, such as the Stations of the Cross, the rosary, wearing medals, etc.” (1674)

Vatican Council II, in its Constitution on Sacred Liturgy says: “Popular devotions of the Christian people, [that] conform to the laws and norms of the Church, are to be highly recommended Such devotions should ... harmonize with the liturgical seasons. They should be in accord with the sacred liturgy, be in some way derived from it, and lead the people to it, since in fact the liturgy by its very nature is far superior to any of them.” (13)

Appendix 7 — Liturgy

Liturgical education is one of the six tasks of catechesis articulated in the General Directory for Catechesis. (85) The National Directory for Catechesis clearly outlines the relationship between catechesis and liturgy. “Catechesis both precedes the Liturgy and springs from it... Liturgy itself is inherently catechetical.” (33) As such, it is important to provide for our children a firm grounding in the rich liturgical heritage of the Catholic Church. Appendix 9 — Vocations - Our Call to Holiness

Vocation is the call of Christ to all the baptized to follow him by embracing a life of holiness and participating in the mission of the Church to build the kingdom of God. Each person responds to this call specifically: as a priest or deacon, as a vowed religious, to married life, or to single life. “Each leads to a manner of life and specific tasks that are essential to building up the Body of Christ and the reign of God.” (OSV, Catholic Encyclopedia 1319)

SPECIFIC VOCATIONAL CALLINGS

- PRIEST—A man ordained through the sacrament of Holy Orders. Priests “are called to holiness of life and an attitude of humility that conforms them to Christ whose priesthood they share.” (United States Catholic Catechism for Adults, 265) They serve by teaching, sanctifying and shepherding the People of God in the very person of Jesus Christ, the Head of his Body, the Church.
 - DIOCESAN PRIEST—A man ordained for the Church in service to a specific diocese and who ministers under the authority of the bishop of that diocese.
 - RELIGIOUS PRIEST—A religious priest belongs to a particular religious community, taking vows according to that community’s constitution. He ministers in service to the Church according to the charism of his community. Examples would be Franciscans, Dominicans, Jesuits, etc.

- DEACON—A man ordained by the bishop for ministry in the image of Christ the Servant. They may preside at the sacraments of Baptism and Marriage and also fulfill a liturgical role at the celebration of the Eucharist. They are essentially ministers of the Word, of the liturgy, and of charity and justice.
 - TRANSITIONAL DEACONS—Those men ordained deacons in preparation for ordination to the priesthood.
 - PERMANENT DEACONS—Those men who are ordained to the diaconate for life and not in preparation for the priesthood. Men who are married may be ordained permanent deacons.

- CONSECRATED LIFE—A state of Christian life recognized by the Church. Inspired by the Spirit some of the faithful deepen their baptismal consecration through a free and total self-donation to God. It is characterized by the profession of the evangelical counsels of poverty, chastity, and obedience and includes both clerics and laity who seek to strive for the perfection of charity in a permanent form of life.

- RELIGIOUS LIFE—One way to live out the Christian life committed to at Baptism. The Religious life is the most well known form of Consecrated Life. The three fundamental characteristics are: religious consecration expressed through the taking of vows to live a life of poverty, chastity, and obedience; living in community with other members of their orders or congregations; and working in a specific ministry of the Church promoting her mission of evangelization.
 - NUN—A member of a vowed religious community of consecrated women who live in a monastery committing themselves to silence, contemplation, and prayer.
 - SISTER—A woman who is a member of a religious community of consecrated vowed women who serve and minister to the needs of society and the Church.
 - PRIEST— A man ordained through the sacrament of Holy Orders who belongs to a particular religious community and takes vows according to that community’s constitution. He ministers in service to the Church according to the charism of his community
 - BROTHER—A layman who is a member of a religious community of consecrated vowed men who participate in specific ministry in the Church.
 - MONK—A member of a vowed religious community of consecrated men who adhere a monastic rule of life.

- MARRIED LIFE—An exclusive, permanent and lifelong covenant between a man and a woman in which they commit to care for each other and to procreate and raise children.

- SINGLE LIFE—Those who choose to remain single without seeking Holy Orders or taking vows as religious women or men.

Appendix 10 — Safe Environment

Overview

The Diocese of Marquette is committed to the safety of the children and young people entrusted to our care. The diocese has been found to be in full compliance with the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People as issued by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. To ensure this safety, the Diocese of Marquette utilizes a number of programs in our safe environment efforts.

Children in Catholic schools are trained in safe environment using Child Lures® Prevention. This comprehensive program trains children in several areas including personal safety, online safety, drug resistance, and school climate.

Children in parish faith formation programs are trained in safe environment utilizing a dual approach: the Michigan Model offered in local public schools, and the safe environment components of the Formation in Christian Chastity program.

It is our obligation to ensure that any teachings are presented within a Catholic faith context. Therefore, each parish and school will utilize chastity components of the Formation in Christian Chastity program developed by the Diocese of Harrisburg. This program relies heavily on parents as the primary educators of their children.

Leadership and oversight of these programs is provided by the Department of Faith Formation & Education. If you have questions contact Greg Gostomski at 227.9125 or 800.562.9745 ext. 125.
